
Coalition for Public Education - K-12 Debate

Contributed by Robert Clift
Tuesday, 21 April 2009

Coalition for Public Education

Party Debate on K-12 Education

On April 20, 2009 the Coalition for Public Education hosted a debate of the four major parties in the provincial election on K-12 education issues.

The moderator for the event was CBC TV journalist Erica Johnson.

Participants were:

- BC NDP - Rob Fleming, Advanced Education Critic and candidate for Victoria-Swan Lake
- Green Party - Jane Sterk, Party Leader and candidate for Esquimalt-Royal Roads
- BC Conservatives - Mike Brousseau, candidate for Skeena
- BC Liberals - The BC Liberals declined to send anyone to the debate.

Below are links to download the raw recordings of the event. These have not been edited and so the sound quality might be a bit variable.

- Introductions and Opening Statements - 20 minutes - 4.8 MB
- Questions and Answers - Part 1 - 43 minutes - 10.3 MB
- Questions and Answers - Part 2 - 40 minutes - 9.6 MB
- Closing Statements and Final Remarks - 10 minutes - 2.4 MB

